

BROOKLYN NEWS.

NO WONDER BURGLARS FLED.

Confronted by a Fake Safe After Entering the Store.

Dropped Their Tools and Went Out to Kick Themselves.

Albert Davis, a sign painter, of 38 Myrtle avenue, Brooklyn, rushed into the Adams street police station at 7 o'clock this morning and told the sergeant at the desk that three men had entered his store during the night and after rummaging about the premises had evidently become alarmed and fled, leaving a kit of safe-breaker's tools behind. Nothing was stolen.

Mr. Davis said the burglars were evidently attracted to his store by the supposition that he had a large sum of money locked in a large safe which stands against the wall in the front of the store, between two windows.

The sergeant immediately called up Police Headquarters on the telephone and reported the case. Two detectives from the Central Office were detailed to investigate the matter.

They learned from Davis that the place was securely locked up at 10 o'clock last night. When Davis and his assistant, a young man named Fyle, reached the place this morning they found a kit of tools scattered about on the floor. The burglars had entered the store by climbing over a back fence, and after breaking a pane of glass, they fastened the latch and entered.

The detectives looked over the premises and found that the safe bore no marks of having been tampered with. They gathered the tools together and carried them to the station-house. In the lot were two jimmys, an iron hammer, covered with plush, used as a "deadener," a small chisel, round punch and several other implements. The detectives also learned some additional facts which were not entered upon the blotter, and promised to investigate the case.

An "Evening World" reporter called at the store this morning and gathered these facts, which were withheld by the police. The safe is five feet high, and is constructed of pine wood, covered with oilcloth, the real nature of which had been concealed by several coats of black coach paint. The "combination lock" was constructed of two door knobs, and the heavy hinges were merely sections of a broom-handle, ornamented with small rubber balls. The safe was open on the side nearest Mr. Davis's work bench, and it had no back to it. Davis confessed that it cost only $5 cents to construct.

"Some time ago," he said, "I built a shelf on which I could store my cardboard. Then I put in the front, and conceived the idea of making it appear like a safe. I never knew how well I had done my work until today."

The "safe" is certainly a remarkable imitation of the real article. To a person entering the front door it seems like a safe, such as can be found in the stores of hundreds of prosperous merchants.

ACCUSES THREE MEN.

Mrs. Joyce Says She Was Assaulted and Robbed.

Mrs. Rose Joyce, of 96 Hope street, appeared in the Lee Avenue Court, Williamsburg, today as complainant against three young men, all of whom were held by Justice Goetting for further examination. According to the woman's story, she was sitting in her apartments yesterday afternoon when suddenly William Ellis, Robert Thum and James Dempsey entered. The first named is a carpenter, living at 23 Driggs avenue, while the other men reside at 104 Hope street. Ellis, as Mrs. Joyce says, asked where her husband was, and when told that he was at work became very familiar. The woman screamed for assistance, but Ellis put his hand over her mouth and stopped her cries. Then, it is alleged, he assaulted her.

In the mean time it is claimed Thum and Dempsey came in and got away with it. All three men were arrested about three light night on the complaint of Mrs. Joyce.

USED CHARITY AS A CLOAK.

Hart Collected Money for a Mythical Sick Child.

George Hart, twenty-three years old, who says he lives at 111 North Sixth street, was held in the Lee Avenue Court, Williamsburg, today on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. Hart secured a list of the members of St. Paul's Universal Church on South Ninth street from the pastor, J. Coleman Adams, and then went around collecting money on the plea that it was needed for a poor child who would have to be sent to the country to save his life.

Would Not Take Her Warning.

CONY ISLAND, N. Y., June 25.—Frank Lawrence, aged fifteen years, of 145 Thompson street, New York, was taken before Justice Finney today on a charge of stabbing Charles Deile, aged seventeen, of 109 Thompson street, some days ago. While in a restaurant on the island he was told by a woman to get away as the police were looking for him, but he refused to do so. He was released by Justice Finney to await the action of the New York authorities.

DIAMOND SALESMAN DRUNK.

Carried Valuable Gems with Him While on a Spree.

William Bulano, a fine-looking, well-dressed Italian salesman, about thirty-five years old, was fined $1 by Justice Tighe in the Butler Street Police Court, Brooklyn, this morning, on a charge of intoxication. Bulano says he lives at 168 Leonard street, New York. He has been in Brooklyn since Saturday with some very valuable diamonds in his possession. He says he is a salesman for a diamond broker in Maiden lane, New York. He was picked up on Fifth avenue by Officer Kelly, of the Sixth avenue station, on Sunday night, and was arrested before Justice Tighe yesterday morning and fined $1.

YOUTH ON THE WARPATH.

Saw the Wild West Show, and Then Used His Pistol.

Justice Goetting, in the Lee Avenue Court, Williamsburg, today placed Atanacio Mirro, fourteen years old, of 216 Flushing avenue, in the charge of the Children's Society.

Mirro's father took him to Buffalo Bill's show yesterday afternoon, and the boy was greatly excited over what he saw and heard.

Two Sneaking Thefts.

A Landlady and a Chinaman Simultaneously Operated Upon.

A young man called at the home of Mrs. Isabella Lawrence, 203 Adams street, Brooklyn, this morning and asked whether he might engage a furnished room. He was left alone in the parlor a few minutes, and when Mrs. Lawrence returned she discovered that he had gone with her pocketbook, containing $25.

David Dolis, a Chinese landladyman, of Third street, Brooklyn, was held this morning of $25, a diamond pin and other articles. A young man entered his laundry and told him to call at 125 Fifth street for some clothes. While the landladyman was in an inner room the young man doctored under a counter and waited until the Chinaman got outside. Then he ransacked the premises and got away.

KELLY SHED TEARS IN COURT.

Made Countercharges of Cruel Treatment Against His Wife.

He Couldn't Afford a Lawyer, Although Mrs. Kelly Could.

Hannah Kelly and her husband, Michael, appeared before Judge Van Wyck in the City Court, Brooklyn, this morning, and each told tales of the other's cruelty.

Mrs. Kelly brought suit against her husband for limited divorce on the ground of cruelty. She was represented by Lawyer Jacob Schind, who told her story.

Feb. 21, 1892, he said Kelly beat his wife at 579 Centre avenue, and when she lived at 291 Irving avenue he frequently cut her. Once he beat her with a knife, and she was taken to the hospital. Kelly was then called to the bar. In a trembling voice he told his side of the story, which was very pathetic.

Her Body Identified.

No Woman Can Be Happy and light-hearted when painful female complaints crush out her life.

If she is melancholy, excitable, nervous, dizzy, or troubled with sleeplessness or fainting spells, they are symptoms of serious female weakness.

A leaf out of the experience of Mrs. Ann. Miller, who lives at Duhring, Pa., shows that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will cure that terrible weakness and bearing-down pain in the abdomen, the dizziness in the head, the feeling of irritability and loss of appetite.

"I can highly recommend your Vegetable Compound," she writes, "for all female complaints. It has cured many cases where the best doctors failed."

OH! WHAT A CUT THIS IS!

Brooklyn's Budget Is Reduced Nearly $1,000,000.

$750,000 Taken from the Opulent School Board Alone.

Nearly $1,000,000 was cut out of the city budget by the Brooklyn Board of Estimate this morning, when it made a record with the pruning knife which possibly has never before been equalled by any similar body.

With one swoop, and at Mayor Schermer's suggestion, the Board cut $750,000 from the amount asked for by the Board of Education.

This is the greatest cut made in any department. The amount reduced was because the Mayor discovered upon investigation that the Board of Education had been making a private corporation.

The deduction of the $750,000 from the Board of Education, the Mayor stated, would in no way interfere with the educational facilities of the schools.

NEW JERSEY.

SCUDDER GETS A WARRANT.

Jersey City's Parkhurst Pushes His Police Crusade.

He Charges Blackmail and Will Raid Disorderly Houses.

Rev. John L. Scudder, pastor of the Tabernacle, Jersey City, called at Police Headquarters this morning and informed Chief Murphy about a gambling-house in the First Precinct in Jersey City, where, Rev. Mr. Scudder alleges, the proprietor pays protection money to the police.

The matter was referred to Inspector Lange for investigation, and if the proprietor, whose name the police and Rev. Mr. Scudder refuse to divulge, will make an affidavit that he pays protection money the accused police official will be arraigned before the Police Commissioners for trial.

Rev. Mr. Scudder also appeared before Judge Potts and secured a warrant for the arrest of a keeper of an alleged disorderly house, also located in the First Precinct. The place will be probably raided to-night.

When the clergyman preached his sermon on Sunday saying vice was rampant in Jersey City, and especially in the First Precinct, the charges made by Mr. Scudder were denied by Capt. Farrier.

WOULDN'T TAKE A DRINK.

Mrs. Schaff Says She Was Insulted by John Moll.

Justice Goetting in the Lee Avenue Police Court, Williamsburg, today held John Moll, of 4 South Fifth street, on a charge of insulting Mrs. Frank Schaff, of 72 South Sixth street.

The woman says she was walking along Bedford avenue last night, when she passed her to take a drink, and when she declined she says that he attempted to stab her. Moll emphatically denies her charges.

TO BE PHELPS'S SUCCESSOR.

NEWARK, N. J., June 25.—Gov. George T. Werts has appointed ex-Gov. Robert T. Green a member of the Court of Errors and Appeals to take the place made vacant by the recent death of William Van Pelt.

The new appointee is at present one of New Jersey's four Vice-Chancellors, and it was in the Chancery Chambers in Newark this morning that mention of the appointment was made.

His $7 CAB-FARE.

Speculator Morgan's Refusal to Pay Lands Him in Jail.

James Morgan, a nattily dressed, elderly man, who said he was a stock speculator and gave his address as 201 East One Hundredth street, was arraigned in the Harlem Police Court this morning looking the worse for wear and tear consequent upon a night's sojourn in a cell of the East One Hundred and Fourth street station-house. The charge was his refusal to pay $7 fare to Cabman Robert Robbins, of 210 Clinton street.

Morgan, who is said to have been intoxicated, was arrested on One Hundredth street because he did not have the money to pay the hackman after a roundabout drive from Bowery and Bleeker street last night.

CHARLIE BENNEY IS DEAD.

Burned at a Stake by Boys Who Played Indians.

CAMDEN, N. J., June 25.—Charlie Benney, a twelve-year-old boy, who was burned at a stake by some boys who were playing Indians some months ago, died this morning from the effects of his injuries in the Homeopathic Hospital in this city.

Saloon-keeper Graham Held.

Alexander Graham, the saloon-keeper of 208 York street, who was arrested last night on the charge of assault and battery on Mrs. Pilsen, while she was in his saloon, was arraigned before Justice Potts this morning and held to await the result of her injuries.

SACRIFICE SALE.

All This Week. - - All This Week.

Over and above our usual big purchases we ordered for this season enough goods extra to fill that big new building adjoining our present store on 59th st. Do you realize what this means? Think of enough cases and bales to fill a great six-story and basement building 187 feet long! The building isn't ready. The blocks of goods piling in upon us are Large—ENORMOUS—TREMENDOUS! Our determination is equal to the occasion. They are the finest of this season's goods, but we shut our eyes to everything but the one great purpose—SELL! SELL! SELL!

Reduced prices are moving the goods out in no uncertain way. They were made for that purpose. This week will see the greatest price cutting. Expect more for your money than you ever got before. We'll certainly prepare for the biggest storeful of people that we ever had.

Minutes will be worth dollars to you in some departments. For instance, it will take a man from 6 to 15 minutes to be fitted in a new Summer Suit, and he'll save from 6 to 15 dollars—even as compared with the "Special" and "Reduced" prices that prevail elsewhere.

Only by a personal visit, however, is it possible for you to get a fair idea of the character and magnitude of this sale. THEREFORE WE SAY visit this sale. Inspect the goods. Note the prices. We want you to see with your own eyes and know from your own experience that this week's sale is the best opportunity that has ever occurred in the dry goods trade, or that is likely to occur for years and years to come.
